

Terms & Conditions

1. A new client or candidate is an entity that SourceWell has had no previous dealings with during the last 12 months. In case of a discrepancy, our database will have the final decision.
2. In order for the referral to be valid (regardless if it is a Client or Candidate) the placed candidate(s) must remain in their new position throughout the applicable guarantee period (as specified by our client).
3. The vacancy that we place must be an individual permanently placed (i.e., employed directly by our client and not through SourceWell s.r.o.).
4. By submitting a referral email, you declare that you have obtained that person's or company's permission to disclose personal data and/or contact information.
5. In order for a referral reward to qualify, the referred person must commence his or her job within a period of 6 months from the referral date.
6. The final decision to award a referral reward or not is at the sole discretion of SourceWell and this promotion may be withdrawn at any time.

With Best Regards,

SourceWell team
